

SUMMER IN BABYLON

8:30 - SUNDAY, JUNE 5, 2016

WELCOME and RELATIONSHIPS of PEACE

OPENING HYMN “Oh, Worship the King” [LW 458, v. 1-3]

OPENING LITURGY from the Historic Prayer of Azariah

P: We begin in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Blessed art Thou, O Lord, God of our fathers, and worthy of praise. All Thy works are true, and all Thy ways are right, and all Thy judgments are truth.

C: We have sinfully and lawlessly departed from Thee, O God, and have sinned in all things and have not obeyed Thy commandments. And now with all our heart we follow Thee. Please deliver us in accordance with Thy marvelous works.

P: God did not let the fiery furnace destroy His servants, and He will not let sin keep hold on you. Our Lord Jesus Christ has defeated sin and death and has sealed your salvation forever!

C: Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.

P: Bless Him, all who worship the Lord, the God of gods, sing praise to Him and give thanks to Him, for His mercy endures forever.

HOLY GOSPEL Luke 7:11-17 [NIV 84]

¹¹Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. ¹²As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. ¹³When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don’t cry.”

¹⁴Then he went up and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!” ¹⁵The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶They were all filled with awe and praised God. “A great prophet has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.” ¹⁷This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God!
